Question 1:

In God's family, we are all considered equally welcomed in. Sometimes it can be hard to always get along with your family. When have you found this challenging?

Question 2:

God has adopted us into His family through grace; we do not earn our adoption. What does adoption by God, mean to you?

Question 3:

Romans 8:14-17 God gives us a lineage and an inheritance that is beyond what we have received from our earthly family. When you focus on whose you are, how does it change the way you live?

Question 4:

We can live as a slave to fear or as a loved child of God. How are you tempted to live in fear rather than from faith?

Question 5:

When have you felt the oppression of guilt from sin in your life? What would freedom from guilt look like in your life?

Question 6:

Romans 8:11-13 There is an obligation to live according to the Spirit because of all He has given us. How can you live according to the Spirit this week?
